Welcome

to the “Posted workers” conference in Lyon

Dear Madam, Dear Sir,

L’Association Européenne des Avocats – the European Association of Lawyers (AEA-EAL) is pleased to announce the next Congress in LYON on 23 November 2018, on the topic:

“Posted workers in Europe”.

LEGAL AND ECONOMIC ASPECTS:
SOCIAL PROTECTION OF WORKERS – NEEDS OF ENTERPRISES – UNFAIR COMPETITION?

On 29 May 2018, the European Parliament approved a revision of the Directive on posting workers within the EU, as the number of these workers increases every year.

All European countries as well as most important economic sectors are concerned.

We intend to approach legal and the economic aspects of this topic with speakers out of different countries of Europe, lawyers who are dealing with this matter, representatives of national and European authorities, in house lawyers from enterprises, sending out workers or receiving posted workers.

We will be pleased to welcome you on November 23 in the historic town of Lyon (in the premises of the Lyon Bar, 176 Rue de Crequi, 60003 Lyon, France) to discuss this topic!

Do not miss the unique opportunity of exchange of views about this issue, which economic and political impact is growing, provoking some distrust in the public opinion and in administration of hosting countries.

Monique Stengel
Immediate Past-President

Maria Ślęzak
President

General terms and conditions

Participation in Events

Registration

1. Unless clearly stated otherwise, prior registration is necessary to attend any event of the European Association of Lawyers (hereafter named „The Association” or „AEA-EAL”).
2. Registration may be made by letter, fax, email or online registration form. Since the number of places available for participants is limited, registrations will be dealt with in the order in which they are received and accepted on a strict first come first served basis.
3. The registration is legally binding when paid and confirmed by us by letter, fax or email and can only be cancelled according to the conditions described below.
4. Registrations can be made until the day of the event or until the maximum number of participants is reached. This shall not affect the cancellation conditions.
5. A list of participants including each participant’s address will be made available to all participants unless the Association receives written objection from the participant no later than one week prior to the beginning of the event.
6. The participant’s address and other relevant information will be stored in the Association’s database in order to provide information about future AEA-EAL events, publications and/or other developments in the participant’s area of interest unless the participant indicates that he or she does not wish the Association to do so.

Payment and discounts

7. Unless otherwise specified on the registration form, the registration fee includes lunch, beverages consumed during the event and the conference documents. The participant must cover his/her own travel and accommodation expenses.
8. Payment has to be made in the form of a bank transfer to the bank account of AEA-EAL, number 630-023492247, IBAN BE22 6300 2349 2247, BIC BBRUBEBB at the Bank ING, with a clear indication of the first name, family name (or social name) and city/country of origin of the participant and a communication mentioning the references of the event.

Cancellation

9. The Association reserves the right to cancel the event up to two weeks before the planned start. In this case, registration fees received will be fully reimbursed. The Association will not be liable for any other damage caused by cancellation.
10. The Association also reserves the right to amend any part of the Conference program, if necessary, at any time. The mention of a speaker’s name does not commit the Association.
11. The participants may cancel his/her registration under the following conditions: § Cancellations by participants must be in writing and made by letter, fax or email.

§ For cancellations received by us at least one month before the event, 50% of the registration fee will be refunded. For cancellations received by us less than one month before the event, no registration fee will be refunded.

Accommodation

12. The participant has to contact the hotel directly. The association assumes no responsibility for the reservation of accommodation.

Legal provisions

13. The event documentation is protected by copyright. Duplicates, distribution or any other use of the conference documentation is only permitted with the express written consent of AEA-EAL.
14. Should individual provisions of these general terms and conditions be invalid, this shall have no effect on the validity of the remaining provisions.
15. The Association cannot assume liability for incorrect information or other errors.
16. The contractual relationship between the parties shall be interpreted, construed and governed by the laws of Belgium.
17. As far as legally possible, both parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Brussels.

Data protection

18. The Association collects and stores the data necessary for the purposes indicated if the data subject submits the relevant data to the Association, notably:

§Payment of purchases or participation fees.

§Inclusion in the list of participants at the Association’s events.

§Distribution of information about future initiatives of the Association.

§Distribution of publications.

19. Data collected for these purposes will be controlled by the Association but may be processed by a third party contractually engaged by the Association . AEA-EAL will treat data confidentially and solely in compliance with the provisions of the Belgian Law on Privacy and Data Protection

20. The data subject has the right to know if further data is processed and to require the Association to change, rectify, erase or block his/her data.

21. The Association will not transfer personal data to third-party data controllers unless the data subject permits it to do so. In this case, the Association undertakes to inform the third party of any changes requested by the data subject.
