Objective

The annual conference aims at keeping employment and labour law practitioners up-to-date by providing an overview of the latest policy developments, legislative initiatives and case law in this field.

Who should attend?

This conference is aimed at lawyers specialised in employment and labour law.

You will learn...

- the state of play of recent legislative and social policy developments at EU level, in particular concerning a European Labour Authority, posting of workers, the written statement Directive and work-life balance.
- how the CJEU has interpreted key provisions in labour law directives in recent judgments, in particular in areas such as working time, non-discrimination and transfer of undertakings.
- what are the main elements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) affecting employment and which need to be implemented by May 2018.
- about the working conditions of temporary and precarious workers in Europe and related trends.
- about current challenges posed by the platform economy in the work context.
- how Brexit will affect employment protection rules in the UK and the EU27.

What participants said in 2017

- "Excellent programme with a full update of EU rules"
- "Very professional speakers and organisation"
- "A great opportunity to meet other lawyers from various countries"
- "I'm impressed by the very good background documentation"
